

Digital Buddy Volunteer

What the role involves and skills required

- Individually supporting our older clients to learn and develop IT skills and confidence on different devices including mobile phones, tablets and laptops through assisting them on a weekly/ongoing basis.
- You will need good basic IT knowledge/skills about different devices and software, excellent communication skills and patience are essential.
- Time commitment is flexible, involving a minimum weekly commitment of 2 hours usually during weekday daytimes.
- A DBS check is required for all volunteer roles, which is paid for by the organisation and a criminal record does not automatically exclude you from volunteering.
- Holbeck Together operates a Covid-safe environment for all its volunteers and staff, you will be given full instructions as part of your volunteer induction.

What can I gain from this role?

- Training and Induction is provided as part of your role as well as out-of-pocket expenses.
- You will be joining a friendly team of volunteers who help deliver different roles for services across the organisation.
- This role may suit people wanting to develop IT teaching skills/experience.
- You can access a variety of training and support across Holbeck Together via your Volunteer Coordinator.

Who we are...

Holbeck Together have supported the older community of Holbeck for over 25 years and now take a community-wide approach to supporting younger people and families. We are committed to creating opportunities for people of all ages and contributing to a vibrant Holbeck community.

We are at an exciting time in our development as a charity, in response to the growing and emerging needs of our community, we are at a point of change and expansion. We now work with more local people, organisations and businesses than ever before in new and exciting ways.

We need as many hands on deck as possible! Whatever your skills, interests or experience, there are opportunities for you to get involved. We try to build volunteering opportunities around individuals, so please get in touch to find out how you can give and gain.
